Birthday Greetings to:

Jade Amos, Ann Tennison.....January 9
 Sam Marshall.....January 12

Mike and Pam Amos invite the young adults, married and single, to their home for food, fun, and fellowship on January 25th at 7pm. This is open to ages 18 to 40.

For those wishing to minister to Josh & Angie Hughes, either in fellowship or financially, their address is:

2103G Victoria Place Apts.
 Prattville, AL 36066

Please keep their son Elliot in your prayers.

It is better to think of what God is than of what we are. This looking at ourselves, at the bottom is really pride, a want of the thorough consciousness that we are good for nothing. Till we see this we never look quite away from self to God. In looking to Christ, it is our privilege to forget ourselves. True humility does not so much

Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. Matthew 11:29 consist in thinking badly of ourselves, as in not thinking of ourselves at all. I am too bad to be worth thinking about. What I want is to forget myself and look to God, who is indeed worth all my thoughts. Is there need of being humbled about ourselves? We may be quite sure that will do it. Beloved, if we can say as in Romans 7, "In me (that is, in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing," we have thought quite long enough about ourselves; let us then think about Him who thought about us with thoughts of good and not of evil, long before we had thought of ourselves at all. Let us see what His thoughts of grace about us are, and take up the words of faith, "If God be for us, who can be against us?"
