Announcements

We welcome Mark Hartley to our fellowship and look forward to his messages this Sunday morning and evening. Please stay after the morning meeting and enjoy the excellent potluck meal that will be served in the recreational building. Remember that the evening meeting is at 7:00pm!

Birthday Greetings to:

Dolores Griffin.....February 19
 Lauren Allen.....February 22

The deacons would like to express their sincere appreciation to five young ladies in our fellowship who have graciously agreed to serve on a newly formed Hospitality Committee. The committee will consist of Mrs. Diane Fulmer, Mrs. Donna Gentry, Mrs. Beth Ann Marshall, Mrs. Rebecca Miller and Mrs. Joel Wilkerson. These highly gifted and multi-talented young ladies will help plan, coordinate and decorate for special events and other occasions. If you have creative ideas for events or decor which will glorify God, promote mutual edification or just plain 'ole fellowship fun these are your 'go to' gals.

Bobby Marshall will be speaking at Three Oaks in Macon today. He would appreciate your prayers for a safe trip and blessings.

We will never know the joy of self-sacrifice until we surrender in every detail of our lives. Yet self-surrender is the most difficult thing for us to do. We make it conditional by saying, "I'll surrender if . . . !" Or we approach it by saying, "I suppose I have to devote my life to God."

...who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.
 Hebrews 12:2b

We will never find the joy of self-sacrifice in either of these ways. But as soon as we do totally surrender, abandoning ourselves to Jesus, the Holy Spirit gives us a taste of His joy. The ultimate goal of self-sacrifice is to lay down our lives for our Friend (see John 15:13-14). When the Holy Spirit comes into our lives, our greatest desire is to lay down our lives for Jesus. Yet the thought of self-sacrifice never even crosses our minds, because sacrifice is the Holy Spirit's ultimate expression of love.
