Congratulations to our newest graduates! Kaitlyn Kilgo graduated from Sherwood Christian Academy and Thomas Amos graduated from Darton College.

Reverence is not something we can bring to God or create in ourselves; but rather, it is a spiritual grace we receive when we begin to see God as He truly is. Reverence acknowledges in our hearts the glory of God as presented in the Scriptures, and then yields to God His rightful place in our lives. Reverent worshipers acknowledge their unworthiness and, in godly fear, bow before an awesome and holy God. Just a sudden glimpse of the holiness of God will change us forever. As Isaiah is thrust into the presence of God and the Seraphim cry out, "Holy, holy, holy," the prophet confesses, "Woe is me! For I am undone!" Isaiah, the righteous prophet, in one brief moment, is exposed and broken under the gaze of the Almighty. In an instant, he is weighed in the balance and found wanting. The holiness of God has seized his heart, soul, and mind. He cannot forget what he has seen. Boredom, casualness, and lukewarmness about the things of God are gone for ever.

Mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of Hosts...
