God's eye is on His people; their eye is upon Him. In waiting upon God, our eye, looking up to Him, meets His looking down on us. This is the blessedness of waiting on God, that it takes our eyes and thoughts away from ourselves, even our needs and desires, and occupies us with God. We worship Him in His glory and love, with His all-seeing eye watching over us, that He may supply our every need. Oh, the blessedness of waiting on such a God! A very present help in every time of trouble; a shield and defense against every danger. Children of God, will you not learn to sink down in entire helplessness and inability, and in stillness to wait and see the salvation of God! In the utmost spiritual famine, oh, wait on God! He does deliver, He does keep alive. Say it not only in solitude, but say it to each other—"Our soul waiteth on the Lord: He is our help and our shield."

Andrew Murray—Waiting on God
