It is deeply important that the Christian reader should understand the true character of the worship God looks for, and in which He delights. God delights in Christ; and hence it should be our constant aim to present Him to God. Christ should ever be the material of our worship, and He will be, in proportion as we are led by the Holy Spirit. Therefore by Him let us continually offer the sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name. Hebrews 13:15 How often, alas! it is otherwise with us the heart can tell. Both in the assembly and in the closet, how often is the tone low, and the spirit dull and heavy! We are occupied with self instead of with Christ; we are occupied with self and its surroundings—our wants, our weakness, our trials, our difficulties; and leave God without the bread of His sacrifice. We actually rob Him of His due, and of that which His loving heart desires. and the Holy Spirit instead of being free to do His own proper work - which is to take of the things of Christ and show them unto us—is obliged to occupy us with ourselves, in self-judgment, because our ways have not been right. -MacKintosh
