This month the ladies donated a generous assortment of dresses, underclothes, and personal items to CMML for distribution. Additionally, they would like to alert the church body that there is still a real need for canned goods and other foodstuffs at the Albany Rescue Mission.

I can surely witness the faithfulness of God through the 70 or more years I have spent in the Lord's work. The truth of Phil. 4:19 has certainly been proved in our lives, to His glory-One strange experience stands out. In 1935, my wife had major surgery, and the doctor told me to be sure she had eggs for breakfast to help her restore her strength. We had such little income in those days we could not afford that. Believe it or not, some neighbors' chicken—which neighbor, I don't know—strayed every morning into our yard, made a nest, and laid a fresh egg each day during her convalescence. I asked no question "for conscience sake" (1 Cor. 10:25) but my wife had a fresh egg every day while recuperating. -John Bramhall

But my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:19
