Besides avoiding the bestowal of titles such as "Holy," "Father," "Master," "Reverend," and "Pastor" upon men, and additional comment is warranted for the term "minister." The title "minister" is not biblically applied to those in church leadership; in fact, the term is applied in a variety of ways in the New Testament: it is spoken of as a spiritual gift (Rom. 12:7), and is applied to those in civil authority (Rom. 13:1-4), to different believers as they serve Christ in various capacities (1 Cor. 3:5, 4:1; 2 Cor. 6:4, 11:15), and to Christ, who is a minister of the truth the Jews (Rom. 15:8). It is never used as a title before a proper name anywhere in Scripture, however. August Van Ryn comments to this truth: "There are of course, godly and wise leaders among the saints and true ministers of Christ, but God's Word in no manner of form allows the taking of titles and thus setting the clergy above and in a special class from all believers. According to the Word of God every believer is a "minister" and should function as such." - Warren Henderson
