Announcements

Lindsey Fricks will be distributing baby bottles from the Alpha Pregnancy Resource Center today. She would like every family to take one, put in spare currency or coins, and return them to the church by Sunday, February 21. The baby bottle campaign is used to fund the center's programs that help women in crisis pregnancies. Lindsey's dad is the director and is trying to raise money to become a "clinical center" which would allow them to give free sonograms to the girls that come in. Last year the center ministered to 287 women, including 87 teenagers. They are presented with the gospel and offered to enroll in the Earn While You Learn program. Ninety-six enrolled, 4 made professions of faith, and 3 changed their minds about abortion.

God's sovereignty may sometimes involve testing in the form of calamity and trials, but never without love, faithfulness, and compassion. His sovereign will may appear for the moment to be without purpose or sense, yet the ways of God are always perfect. He is a God whom we can trust, love, and worship for His sovereign will. While sovereignty is surely to be believed by all who love sound doctrine, it must not be understood to be exercised in conflict with God's attributes, such as love, justice, truth, and immutability. Some have erred in this respect and have raised sovereignty to such a level that all the attributes of God become secondary, thereby causing discord in the nature of God. The sovereignty of God can never be exercised at the expense to His divine nature, which is love (1 John 4:8). Throughout the canon of Scripture, the sovereign actions of God are guided by His holy character. Abraham echoed this very principle when he said, "Shall not the judge of all the earth do right? (Genesis 18:25)
