3rd Annual Ladies Bible Conference addendum: The keynote speaker will be Carol Bramson.

A critical world is watching. By some strange instinct, it realizes that the Christian life deserves everything or nothing. When it sees an out-and-out Christian, it may sneer, scoff and ridicule—yet inwardly, it has respect for the man who recklessly abandons himself to Christ. But when it sees a half hearted Christian, it has nothing but contempt. It is no exaggeration to liken the Christian life to war. There are the fierce enemies—the world, the flesh and the devil. There are discouragements, bloodshed, and suffering. There are the long weary hours of vigil, and the yearning for the light of day. There are tears and toil and testings. And there is daily death. Anyone who sets out to follow Christ should remember Gethsemane, Gabbatha and Golgotha. And then he should count the cost. It is either an absolute commitment to Christ, or a sniveling surrender with all of its disgrace and degradation. William MacDonald—True Discipleship
