Daylight Savings Time starts next week. Remember to set your clocks forward one hour this coming Saturday night or you will be an hour late next Sunday morning!

If you weren't able to make it to the South Eastern Worker's Conference, the messages are online at www.sewc.info.

Whether it is about a simple feast of bread and wine to remember Him and publicly proclaim the value of His death, or to gather around His Words to learn His mind, or round His mercy seat to tell Him our needs or to encourage His people in pressing forward to their high-calling in Christ—we meet with Him and in His name. The Lord and His presence draws us to every church meeting. I want to be at every meeting because the Lord will be at every meeting. C. H. Mackintosh writes: “Of the many favors conferred upon us by our ever-gracious Lord, one of the very highest is the privilege of being present in the assembly of His beloved people, where He has recorded His name. We may assert with all possible confidence that every true lover of Christ will delight to be found where He has promised to be... To neglect the assembling of ourselves is to take the first step on the inclined plane that leads down to abandonment of Christ and His precious interests.”
